Harpist booking information

How to hire me as a harpist for your event

in 4 easy steps

- 1 Provide me with the date, address of the venue, and the time that you would like me to play
- 2 Please ensure there is a parking space near the entrance of the venue - disability entrance preferred
- 3 Secure your booking date by sending over £100 deposit via bank transfer (details on p.2)
- 4 Confirm music choices and final requirements via email or Zoom meeting

The harp is a beautiful instrument which creates a warm wall of sound and is perfect background music for any occasion.

Requirements

Things to remember

- └ If you require me to play outside, the harp cannot be in direct sunlight and must be under cover and/or near an accessible entrance
- └ I cannot play above/below ground floor level unless there is a lift at the venue or the staff can help make alternative arrangements

Reassurances

For your peace of mind

- └ I always arrive around an hour before my start time to ensure I am setup and ready to play
- └ I am fully covered for liability insurance and can provide documentation if needed

Harpist booking information

For weddings

The harp is surprisingly versatile

I thrive on learning new pieces of music, no matter what genre. So if you have a specific piece or song in mind, please do let me know and I would be happy to play it for you on my harp. (See p.3 for popular song choices).

In a service, I normally play:

- └ A selection of music pieces while guests arrive/take their seats
- └ 1 song for the bridal entrance
- └ 2/3 songs for signing of the register
- └ 1 song for your exit together
- └ If you are having hymns, I can also play accompaniment for these

Pricing

£100 deducted from total amount for deposit

- └ 1 hour's playing / service: £400*
- └ 2 hours playing: £550*
- └ 3 hours playing: £700*

*plus diesel costs
